Dear Mr Jha

Application for Endorsement for Tier 1 (Exceptional Talent) of the Points Based System (Stage 1)

Re: Mr Ashish Ranjan Jha India

Thank you for your Application for Endorsement under Tier 1 (Exceptional Talent). The application was forwarded to Tech Nation on 24 July 2019 and they provided a recommendation to the Home Office.

You have requested that the decision not to endorse your application be reviewed. The Home Office forwarded your request to Tech Nation and they have reconsidered your application. They have advised that you meet their criteria for Exceptional Talent and I am therefore satisfied that you can be endorsed under Tier 1 (Exceptional Talent).

Full details of how to apply to the Home Office for stage 2 of the Tier 1 (Exceptional Talent) scheme, including the relevant fees, are available on the Home Office visas and immigration pages of the gov.uk website.

Applications from outside of the United Kingdom: www.gov.uk/tier-1-exceptional-talent/apply

Applications from inside the United Kingdom: www.gov.uk/tier-1-exceptional-talent/switch-to-this-visa

This endorsement is valid for 3 months from the date of this letter and therefore you must submit a stage 2 application within this period or the application will be refused.

Holding a valid endorsement letter does not mean you hold entry clearance to come to the United Kingdom or leave to remain in the United Kingdom. If your current leave is about to expire you must either make plans to leave the United Kingdom or submit a leave application (stage 2) in order to extend it. This will prolong your leave until the Home Office makes a decision on the application.

Yours sincerely,
